Subject: Organisation of Departmental Functions - need to ensure appropriate protocol to invite retired Chairmen/Members etc.- reg.

It may be recalled that CBEC and its field formations organize certain Departmental functions, such as, Central Excise Day, Customs Day etc., to highlight the activities of the Department. With a view to share present day experiences and achievements with our esteemed retired senior colleagues, they are generally invited to be present on such occasions. While there may not be any formal policy in this regard, as per the past practice, such retired senior colleagues living in the capital and NCR region are invited to attend such functions being organized in Delhi. Similar practice are also being followed for inviting senior retired colleagues living in other cities to attend such functions being organised in vicinity.

2. While there is need to continue to observe the existing practice, due care must be taken to ensure that all such retired senior colleagues living in the capital and NCR region and other cities are duly invited without any exception in advance and appropriate protocol should be extended to them for attending such functions in their city/region. Any deviation in this matter will be viewed seriously.
